23
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA – SAN FRANCISCO

24 KATHLEEN IMMEDIATO,

Plaintiff,

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendant.

No. CV-07-03008 MMC

STIPULATION AND JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND DEADLINES; [PROPOSED] ORDER

25 In accordance with Local Rule 6-2, Plaintiff Kathleen Immediato (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant
 26 the United States of America (“Defendant”) hereby stipulate and jointly move this Court for a brief
 27 extension of the expert disclosure deadline. This request will cause no change to trial date or pretrial
 28 conference date previously set for this case.

1 As grounds for this motion the parties state the following:

2 1. This is a claim for Professional Negligence, Wrongful Death, Survival and Elder Abuse related
3 to Decedent Ralph Immediato's care at the Martinez Outpatient Clinic and Center for Rehabilitation
4 and Extended Care ("CREC").

5 2. Fact discovery was completed on May 1, 2008 in accordance with the Court's previous ruling.

6 3. The Parties participated in court ordered mediation on March 31, 2008, before John Barg.

7 While the case did not resolve at that time, the parties made significant progress towards a potential
8 settlement of this matter.

9 4. On May 5, 2008, the parties jointly moved that this Court assign this case to a settlement
10 conference before a Magistrate Judge and extend expert discovery deadlines and the trial date of this 11 matter.

12 5. On May 8, 2008, this Court granted the parties motion, setting this matter before Magistrate
13 Chen for settlement conference and ordering that all dates, beginning with the disclosure of Plaintiff's
14 experts, be set one month after the settlement conference.

15 6. The parties scheduled a settlement conference with Judge Chen to take place on July 24, 2008.

16 7. On July 21, 2008, Defendant's counsel first learned that one of its counsel necessary for the 17 settlement of this matter would be unavailable for settlement conference on July 24, 2008.

18 Defendant's counsel then informed Plaintiff's counsel.

19 8. After consulting with Magistrate Chen's clerk, the parties filed a stipulation rescheduling the 20 settlement conference.

21 9. On July 24, 2008, Magistrate Chen signed an Order rescheduling the settlement conference in 22 this matter to August 25, 2008.

23 10. Plaintiff is currently required to disclose experts on August 8, 2008. Defendant is required to 24 designate rebuttal experts on August 29, 2008. Expert discovery is set to close October 3, 2008.

25 11. In preparation for her expert disclosure, Plaintiff will incur substantial costs.

26 12. Given the relative value of this case, both parties agree that once the Plaintiff incurs these 27 expenses, a settlement of this matter is highly unlikely.

13. Both parties feel that as this case presently stands there is a high probability that it will settle during the settlement conference currently scheduled before Magistrate Chen.

14. The parties ask that the Court grant the parties a brief extension to the deadlines for disclosure of experts and the expert discovery cut-off.

15. This extension will cause no change to the deadline for filing dispositive motions, the further status conference, the pretrial conference, or the trial date. This is the third request for an extension in this case.

Therefore, the parties request that the Court change the dates for expert disclosure and expert discovery cut-off as follows:

- Expert Disclosure For Both Parties: September 22, 2008
- Expert Discovery Cut-Off: October 20, 2008

This extension will allow the parties to continue to attempt settlement of this matter, without Plaintiff incurring substantial costs which will make settlement less likely. Additionally, there will be no change to the trial date.

Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the Court grant their Stipulation and Joint Motion to Extend Deadlines.

Dated: July 29, 2008
